THE BLOOMING BRIDE, But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and honymey of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, because a feeble, sickly, de-bilitated wife, with farms emachand, nerves un-strung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the tupress of saffering, and an utter physical and scental prostration. mental prostration.
Sometimes this deplorable change may and does arise from organic or constitutional causes. But oftener, by far aftener, to gross and inexonable ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of beath as converted with the marriage state, the rigistion of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often

DREADFUL INHERITANCE

And must this continue! Shall we be wise in all that concerns the cattle of our fields, our beep, our cows, our oxen, the nature and character of the soil we possess, the texture and quality of our goods and merchandree; but in all that concerns ourselves as human beings, with human functions and passions, subject to great derangement, involving our future peace and happinessin all that concerns the health and welfare of the wife of our affections, and the mother of our children; in all that concerns the mental and physical well being of those children, we should be immersed in the darkest and most from the Parents. BENIGHTED IGNORANCE.

AS CHILPARLY AS PURYOUSABLE! AS CULPARIES AS DESCOURABLE!

How long shall this ignorance permit so productive of its ultter fruits? How long shall the a feated mether be ignorant of the nature, character and causes of the various would and sexual complication embittering her days by inferings suffering suffering information prolonged to years, eventuating in a complication of discusses ulterly and hopelessly incurable? Shall we for ever close our eyes to the results of physiological science by which we may arrive at an understanding of ourselves as men and women, subject to serious life-long enduring diseases, and perpetuating them to our children.
